

Advancing Health & Performance Globally

Institute for Health and Productivity Management WorkPlace Wellness Alliance

ANNOUNCEMENT

IHPM | WPWA 16TH GLOBAL HEALTH & PRODUCTIVITY CONFERENCE is moving to a new location and date in the early fall with a new theme.....

ADVANCING EMPLOYEE HEALTH & WELLBEING FOR A HIGHER-PERFORMING WORLD

.....will join with a new Host (soon to be announced) and Lead Sponsor to “push the curve” of thought leadership and learn from the most successful workplace practices around the world.

Attendees then can remain for a day to receive the ultimate takeaway from the Global Conference — the knowledge and ability to make Health & Productivity Management (HPM) work for the good of their own companies. Join the growing ranks in the emerging professional discipline of HPM by attending IHPM’s Executive Training Academy — now numbering 200 health and human resource professionals who have become a new kind of “business asset manager” from gaining certification.

Stay tuned to this site for details of the Global Conference and the Executive Training Academy to take place early this fall.
